

Join the Collaboration and WILPF for CSW 59 to Celebrate Beijing+20!

The US Women and Cuba Collaboration is pleased to join the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom (WILPF) Advancing Human Rights and Cuba and Bolivarian Alliance Committees, National Organization for Women (NOW) Global Feminist Issues and Strategies Committee, National Dominican Women's Caucus and representatives from the Federation of Cuban Women (FMC) with women from around the world in New York as we present at the UN CSW parallel events in 2015. Please join us for these panels!

Monday, March 9, 6:15pm

CCUN 10th Floor (777 UN Plaza)

"Advancing Women's Human Rights in the Americas with CEDAW/The Women's Treaty"

Panelists from Cuba, the Dominican Republic, Venezuela and the US will share their experiences collaborating and working to advance women's human rights using CEDAW and other strategies for movement building among women, with a focus on women of the Americas. Presenters include Kristin Alder, Zenaida Mendez, Nataka Moore, Barbara Nielson, Jan Strout and representatives from the Federation of Cuban Women.

Monday, March 16, 2:30pm

CCUN 10th Floor (777 UN Plaza)

"Cuba--Advancing a Revolution for All!"

The workshop focuses on the advancement of a women's rights agenda under the Cuban Revolution. In particular it addresses campaigns in Cuba about the struggles against homophobia, racism and domestic violence and their relationship to building a more inclusive society. Presenters include Collaboration members and representatives of the Federation of Cuban Women who will talk about the history of Cuba's struggle against homophobia and the roles of CENESEX (Cuban National Center for Sexual Education) and the Federation of Cuban Women (FMC).

NGO CSW FORUM

HANDBOOK 2015

WHERE WOMEN AND GIRLS SHAPE THE FUTURE

