

FEDERACIÓN DE MUJERES CUBANAS

Havana, June 8th, 2012.

To our dear friends of NOW,

In the occasion of the celebration of the NOW Conference, receive our warm greetings, on behalf of the Federation of Cuban Women, and we take advantage of this opportunity to wish you successes in the coming event and its work, and in facing the new challenges of this current world.

Our Organization, to wish more than 4 million women belong to, is an ONG [NGO] in Consultative Status with ECOSOC, and we are very proud of maintaining the historical links with the NOW Organization, that has carried out an arduous and recognized work in favor of peace, freedom and solidarity between peoples and their women, and in particular in the struggle for the US women´ rights.

We welcome the advances and achievements of this organization since its creation, for the equality of rights, in the struggle for the elimination of all forms of discrimination and violence against women, against racism, and sexism; and also in defending the women´s reproductive rights and the promotion of the equality and the economic justice within the society.

Once again we express our support and best wishes, and reiterate that we will continue expanding and strengthening the bilateral relations between our organizations, characterized by the colaboration and solidarity, with the aim of achieving the full participation of women in the economic, politic, social and cultural spheres of our nations.

Recibe our very warm greetings,
FEDERATION OF CUBAN WOMEN
